

2022-23 Epic Leadership Descriptions

Leadership requirements:

- Be a growing Christian/disciple of Jesus
- Acknowledge and abide by Epic Leadership Commitments 2022-23

POD LEADER

POD leaders play an important role in helping students grow--spiritually with God and relationally with other students in the small group. There will be two leaders in each POD.

Expectations:

- Pray continually for POD members and spend time in God's Word consistently
- Attend POD leader meetings every other week
- Prepare and facilitate small group discussions each week
- Meet up with POD members one-on-one throughout the year to encourage and challenge
- Create opportunities for the group to build relationships with each other and/or serve the church or community
- Choose one or two people to disciple and invest in
- Look for opportunities to share the Gospel
- Plan, prepare, and execute the entire POD Retreat weekend, organizing meals, finding rides, and planning and leading Bible discussions.
- There will also be events throughout the year that may require PODs to be involved

Estimated time requirement:

6-8 hours/week (2 hours-POD meeting, 2 hours-POD prep, 2 to 4 hours-meeting one-on-one with POD members/assistant/disciple) with increased time during POD Retreat and other events during the year

CREATIVE TEAM

Do you have experience with videography, photography, social media, or graphic design? Do you have the "artistic eye"? This team wants you!

Projects are divided up amongst the team members based on ability and interest, as there are always projects needing to be done. You have the opportunity to share the Gospel through media projects, with each other as a team, and with your friends and others in your personal community.

Expectations:

- Promote Epic events and initiatives via social media, making videos, etc
- Manage Epic's social media accounts
- Make graphics for events and initiatives
- Create social media content that has a ministry purpose

Estimated time requirement:

Weekly and/or daily management of social media

Graphics will be requested for all events and initiatives

Videos may be requested for retreat promotion, event promotion, etc

Other projects may be requested as necessary

OPERATIONS TEAM

It takes many hands to accomplish the vision and mission of Epic throughout the year! This team will not only set up and tear down for all of our events, but also prioritize prayer for everything we do. If you're looking for a way to serve in Epic behind-the-scenes, sign up for this team.

Expectations:

- Arrive at 6:30pm to set up and tear down for Epic Thursday nights. Pray for the evening before students arrive.
- Set up all Epic events (ex. Halloween party). Pray for events before students arrive.
- Transport supplies, set up, and clean up for all events during OSU Welcome Week. Pray for events before students arrive.
- Go to retreats early to transport supplies and set up. Pray for the retreat before students arrive.

Estimated time requirement:

1.5 hours/week (1 hour-set up & pray for Epic Thursday nights, .5 hour-clean up Thursday nights) with increased time during Welcome Week, retreat weekends, and for Epic events

OUTREACH TEAM

Outreach Team is about connecting Epic students to the Great Commission through events and initiatives. This team will be tasked with going out to reach the campus regularly throughout the year!

Expectations:

- Create, plan, and attend campus engagement events
- Conduct spiritual surveys on campus
- Follow up with students who you interact with at campus engagement events
- Follow up with students who attend Epic events, Thursday nights, or church for the first time

Estimated time requirement:

3-4 hours/week (conducting spiritual surveys and facilitating campus engagement events)

THURSDAY NIGHT TEAM

Thursday night is the one time each week all of Epic gets together. This team is responsible for putting their creative minds together to plan a large group gathering each week to allow Christians and non-Christians gather in community, introduce new people to Jesus, and explore relevant topics. Although this team requires creativity, the role also requires responsible and administrative people as well. This team will oversee everything for each Thursday night, including set up and clean up, as well as look for opportunities to share the Gospel to the group and personally. If you want to lead worship on Thursday nights, you'll be a part of this team too!

Expectations:

- Brainstorm and effectively communicate announcements every Thursday night
- Create powerpoint slides for announcements
- Brainstorm and execute an icebreaker every Thursday night
- Lead worship and/or organize a worship leader for every Thursday night
- Prioritize hospitality by welcoming people to Epic, introducing new people to another leader, etc

Estimated time requirement:

4 hours/week (1 hour-team meeting, 3 hours- Thursday night gathering)
